Weep not for a sister deceased,
Our loss is her infinite gain,
A soul out of prison released,
And freed from its bodily pain.
At home in Heaven.

With songs let us follow her flight,
And mount with her spirit above,
Escaped to the mansions of light,
And lodged in the Eden of Love.
At home in Heaven.

Our sister the haven hath gained,
Outdying the tempest and wind,
Her rest she hath sooner obtained,
And left her companions behind.
At home in Heaven.

The voyage of life's at an end,
The mortal affliction is past,
The age that in Heaven she'll spend
For ever and ever shall last.
At home in Heaven.

BY HER BROTHER-IN-LAW, BENJ. F. HOPKINS.

We had a little Ella once,
She was our joy and pride;
I loved her—oh! perhaps too well,
For soon she slept and died.
No merry shout no more I hear,
No laughing child I see;
No little arms around my neck,
No feet are on my knee.
No kisses drop upon my cheeks,
Those lips are sealed to me;
Oh! Lord, how can I give my Ella up
To any one but Thee?

The funeral will take place from her late residence, No. 46 Light street, this (Monday) afternoon, at three o'clock.
